A very enjoyable Christmas concert was given at the Congregational church last evening, the children doing exceptionally well and entertaining their parents and friends in a fine manner. Two large trees, procured by the boys of Guy Varnum's Sunday school class, were in place at the end of the platform, and with the decorations of colored lights, tinsel and ornaments made a pleasing picture. The offering was for Armenian relief. Gilbertson's orchestra furnished music, which was much enjoyed. Special music was also given at the morning service yesterday.

Mrs. Edwin Bruce assisting with the violin. Next Wednesday evening at 8:30 an old-fashioned Christmas tree celebration is to take place in the church, when the trees will be at the disposal of those attending and are expected to be loaded with gifts.

One of the best pre-Christmas programs given in the Baptist church in many seasons was presented last evening before an audience of over 200 people. The program was carefully arranged and produced, it being the work of Mrs. Harry Bradley, superintendent of the primary department of the Bible classes. Mrs. Ernest Batchelder and Miss Ethel Inglis. The entertainment was given only by the members of the primary department, assisted by a few of the choir. The church was tastefully decorated in evergreens. A special offering was taken at the end of the entertainment, which will be used for benevolences. On Wednesday evening of this week the choir will present an operetta.

TALK OF THE TOWN

A masquerade ball in the South Barre grange hall will be held Friday evening, Dec. 26. Prizes to be awarded for best lady's and gent's costumes. Refreshments to be served. Admission $1, extra ladies 25c.—adv.

The old mill pond in South Barre was the scene of pronounced activities this morning, when a gang of 35 men started to store away in the Ward ice house the first crop of ice. The ice, 12 inches in thickness, is of an unusually good quality and may be stored in the house in cakes 12 inches thick. As soon as possible more men will be added to the present number, for it is the plan of the company to have 50 men working within the next few days. Many of the number (this morning were young men who wish to make the most of the cold-weather or school vacation season.

TO-DAY

Earl Williams in
"THE HORNET'S NEST"

From the popular novel by Mrs. Wilson Woodrow. The story's background is a mixture of society and underworld. Also Pathe news, a Burton Holmes travel, and the Screen Magazine.

TUESDAY—VIOLET DANA IN "PLEASE GET MARRIED"

From famous stage success by Oliver Morosini, a week-end comedy of innocents on a honeymoon. Also the Pathe Review of "slow camera" exploits, and Helen Holmes in the First Episode of the GREATEST SERIAL EVER MADE, "THE FATAL FORGOTTEN". It's towering, crashing, death-defying, breath-taking episodes. The wild stunts make you gasp and the clever mystery holds you spellbound. Don't miss the first episode, "THE TRAILER'S SECRET".

WEDNESDAY

CONSTANCE TALMADGE IN "ROMANCE AND ARABELLA"

A picturization of the famous comedy by William Hazlitt. It is written in a satiric vein of modern fads and ideas, filled with sprightly humor which offers the star many opportunities for comedy. Also the Kinogram week-end news, a Mutt and Jeff cartoon comedy and a Metro comedy, "SALVATION SUE".
